

Eighty Hour

Polaris

The 1983-84 school year has brought with it the ending of a great tradition at Indian Valley North High School.

Since as long as most of us can recall, the Senior Class has joined together and painted names, class mottos, and other graffiti on "The Rock", a piece of local history and a landmark to many. But, sadly enough, the hill upon which "The Rock" was situated has been recently reclaimed through the efforts of a federally funded project. This project has all but concealed the notable relic under tons of earth.

Reasons for the reclamation include reducing safety hazards and beautifying the area.

Whatever the reasons, we, the Class of 1984, being the last to scrawl names and graffiti on "The Rock's" weathered surface, express our deepest regrets that those classes following us will never experience the gratification of seeing their class year displayed for all.

SPIRIT BOOSTERS

Our varsity and reserve cheerleading squads have done their best to keep the spirit alive at I.V.N. by decorating halls, planning pep rallies, and giving special treats to our well deserving teams.

Also, this has been another great year thanks to the outstanding support of our Pep Club. Many thanks to all those who cheered for the Big Blue in 1983-84!

The cheerleaders and Pep Club are very grateful to Mrs. Roudebush for her patience and time.

“SWEET DREAMS”

The 1983 Homecoming Queen, Tawny Davis, was crowned on October 8, during halftime ceremonies of the I.V.N. — Central Catholic football game. Tawny was escorted by her father, Mr. Richard Davis.

Senior attendants Jennifer Baker, Rhonda Metzger, and Terry Benadum were escorted by their fathers, John Baker, Raymond Metzger, and Clarence Gorby, respectively.

Other members of the court were Teri Burkhart, Connie Polilli, and Kim Marty. The 1982 Queen, Marelle Hairston, did the crowning. Carrying the cape was Curtis Love, while Brandi Harshey carried the crown.

The theme of the dance sponsored by the Pep Club was “Sweet Dreams”. Music was provided by Eric St. John from WNPQ.

WINNING TRADITION CONTINUES

With three returning starters, Mr. Roudebush and the Big Blue Varsity Volleyball Team had an outstanding 22-3 season.

The Big Blue team honors include the IVC, Sectional and District Championships. They then advanced to Regional play where they were defeated in three sets by Huntington. This District Title was the ninth consecutive championship for the team.

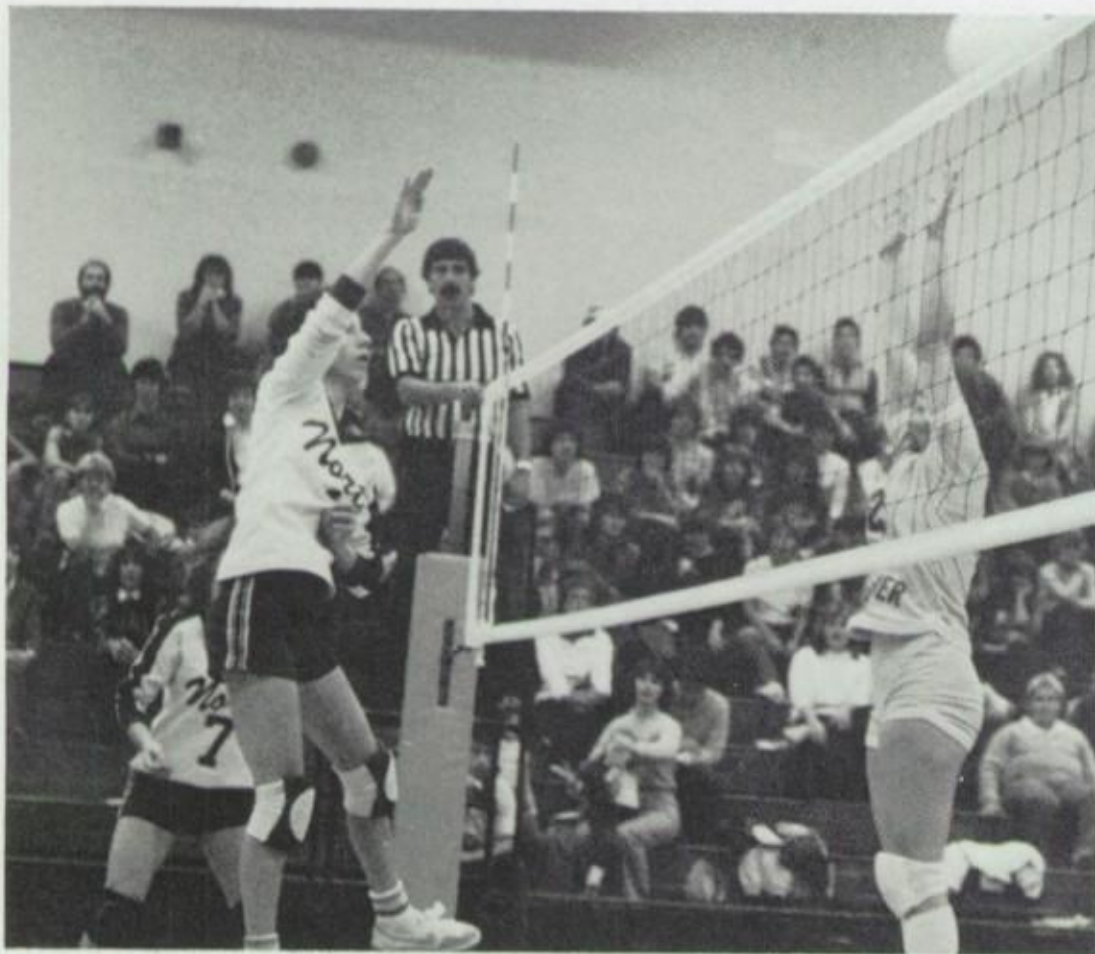

Coach Gasser led the reserves to a very impressive 17-4 season.

GOALS ATTAINED

The Big Blue Marching Band had an outstanding season. The marchers compiled three first place finishes at the Louisville Constitution Days Band Show, Kent State Marching Band Invitational, and the Akron Galaxy of Bands. They received a second at the Claymont Round-up and a third at the Newcomerstown Band Show.

The major goal of the band was met this year. They qualified for the State Marching Band Finals at three different competitions.

At the State Finals in the Franklin County Stadium in Columbus, the Big Blue Band received an Excellent rating and their drum line received a Superior.

IMPRESSIVE SEASON

This year's Big Blue Football Team turned out an impressive season ending 6-4. In his second season as the North mentor, Coach Bob Zontini, assisted by Greg Starr, Mike Russell and John Metzger, did another excellent job.

There were many highlights in 1983 as the Big Blue won their last three games. Defeating Jewett-Scio, Indian Valley South and ending the season by knocking Ridge-wood out of the I.V.C. race for the second consecutive year made for an exciting season.

With continued good, dedicated coaching and many returning let-termen, the 1984 team should con-tinue North's winning ways.

MR. CAVINESS ENDS TEN YEAR COACHING CAREER AT NORTH

After ten years as head basketball coach here at Indian Valley North and a very exciting season, Mr. Caviness has resigned his coaching position.

Mr. Caviness' accomplishments included knocking off the Conotton Valley Rockets 65-54 this season in Sectional play. Mr. Caviness also reached his 200th game winning mark in an exciting 71-55 victory against the Malvern Hornets.

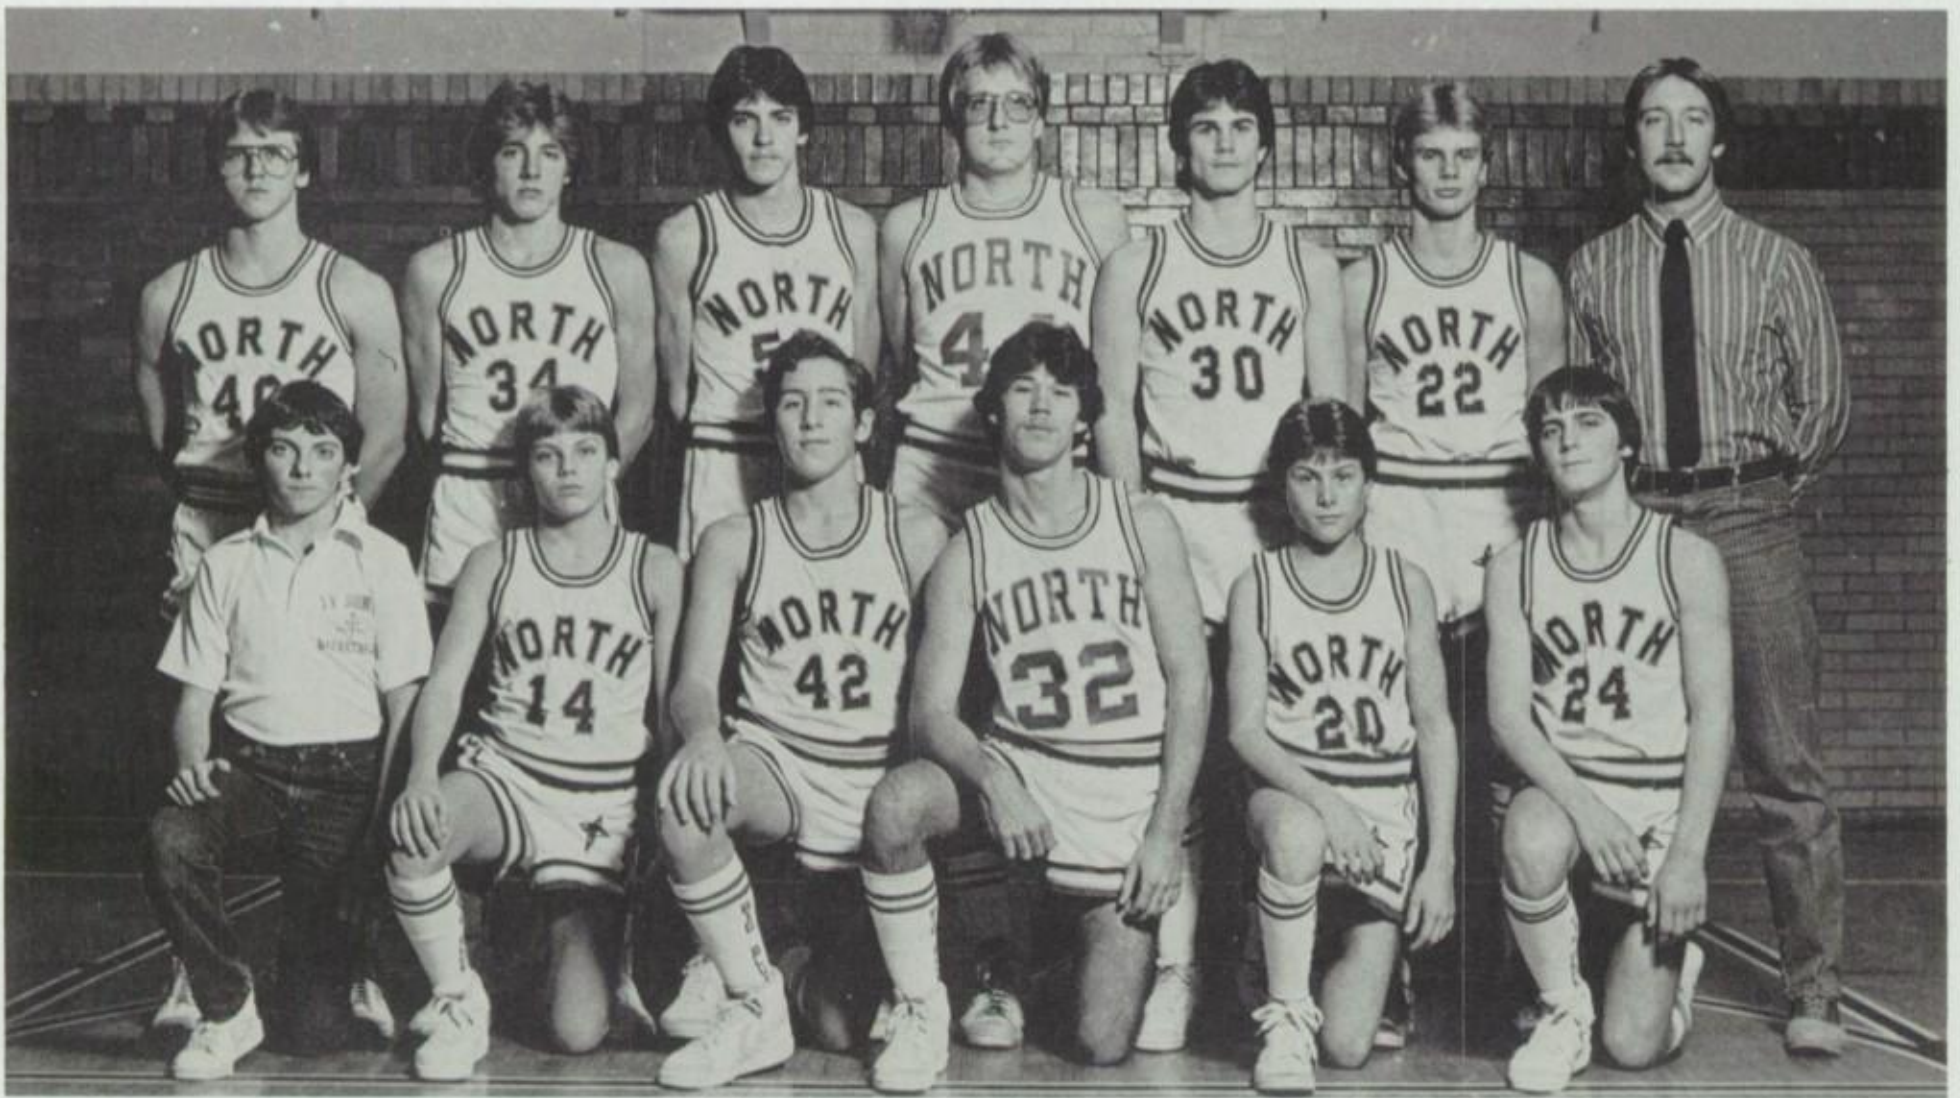

Although Mr. Caviness has decided it is time for a change, he will still be available with help in the Guidance Department and he will also remain a big fan of the I.V.N. athletics.

JOE JACKSON

In conjunction with the Ohio Arts Council's Artist-in-Residence Program, the Tuscarawas County Board of Education, and Indian Valley North, Joe Jackson, a free-lance writer, visited our school. From March 5 through March 16, Joe helped the students develop their creative writing abilities. The result of the two weeks of work, fun, and learning was a book of student writing entitled, IN MIDVALE. The book contained students' essays, poems, and stories.

Besides being a free-lance writer, Joe is also Coordinator of Creative Writing for Bowling Green State University's Department of Continuing Education and a part-time faculty member at Bowling Green and the University of Toledo. He has degrees from Florida State University and the University of Arkansas.

Joe became a dear friend in the short time he spent at North. The administration, faculty, and students wish him the best of luck with life, especially in getting his book published.

Students display their welcome to Joe Jackson.

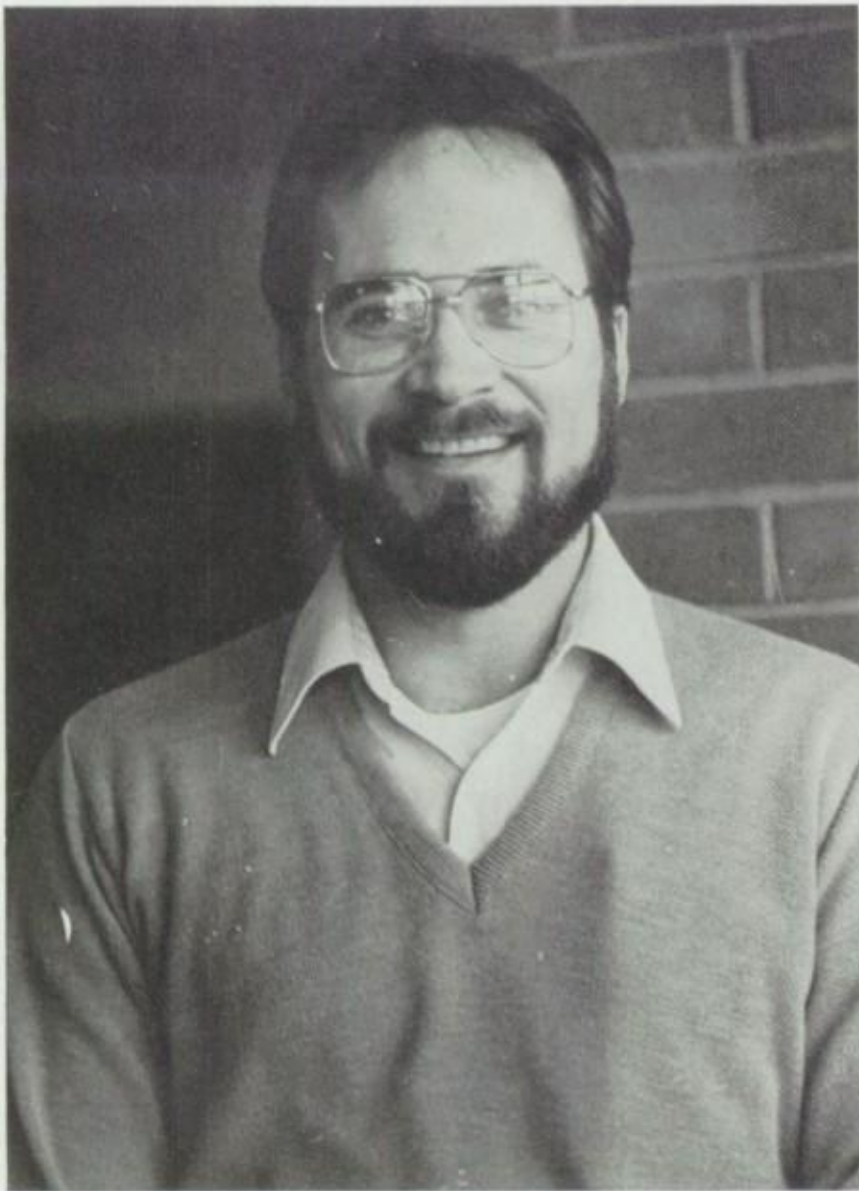

Joe Jackson lectures on the art of creative writing.

Visiting students enjoy Joe's presentation.

EARN WHILE YOU LEARN

The goals of the O.W.E. class this year were employment, citizenship, pride, and graduation. The class had approximately 12,000 to 15,000 hours of on-the-job training and grossed nearly $45,000.

Family ties on the diamond.

This past season our baseball squad, coached by Mr. Matlick and Don Wolfe, posted an 8-2 record in the I.V.C. and 16-5 record overall, good for a second place in the I.V.C. In tournament action, after getting first seed, they beat Strasburg 12-6, then in the final game they were ousted 21-14 by Central Catholic.

Jeff awaits and anticipates.

Jack goes for two.

SUCCESSFUL TRACK SEASON

The boys' track team posted a 4-3 record this year, while the girls soared to an 8-0 record. The girls won the I.V.C. and sent six representatives to State Competition: Terry Benadum, Becki Schoelles, Jessie Metzger, Heidi Schoelles, Jody Kerns, and Carmen Searcy.

SIX JUNIORS INDUCTED

An assembly was held on May 8, 1984 to recognize the new members of the Indian Valley North National Honor Society. The inductees, chosen on the basis of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service were Bob Anderson, Wendy Berkshire, Theresa Burkhart, Ryan Lawrence, Kelly O'Connor, and Scott Pretorius.

Senior Honor Society members spoke on each of the principles of the organization. Following the ceremony, guest speaker Harold Shade, Dean of the Tuscarawas Campus of Kent State University, presented his educational philosophy to those present. Mr. Keith Pretorius is the advisor.

Mr. Keith Pretorius, Advisor

The stage is set.

ROW 1: Terry Benadum, Lois Rummell, Michele Berkshire, Rhonda Metzger. ROW 2: Steve Sullivan, Misty Whitmire, Becki Schoelles, Scott Ault.

Mr. Pretorius addresses the audience.

The flame of knowledge is passed to each member.

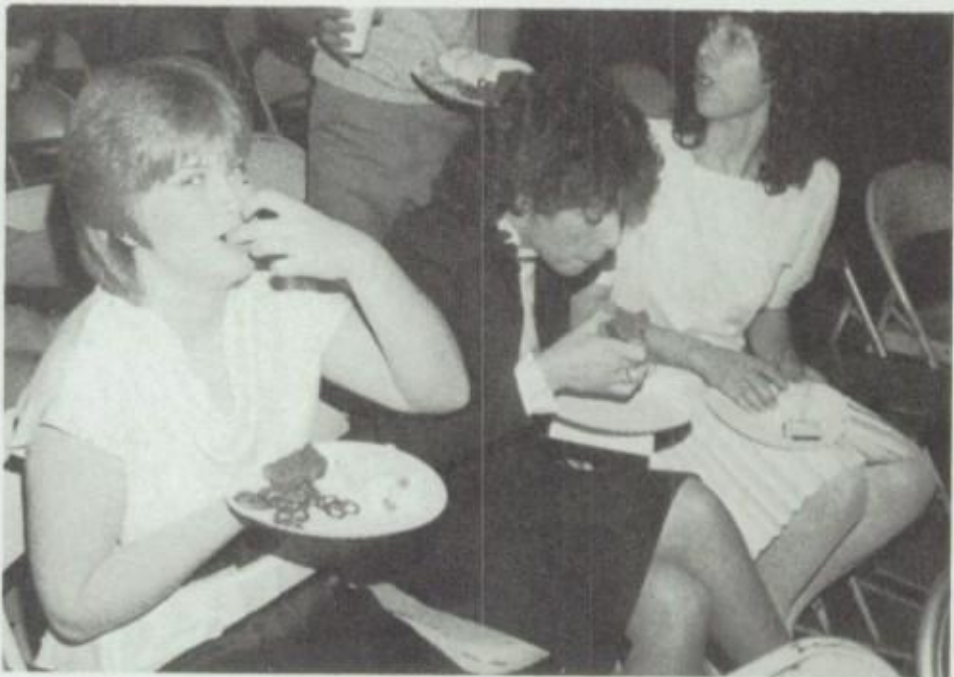

JUNIOR INDUCTEES: Wendy Berkshire, Ryan Lawrence, Scott Pretorius, Kelly O'Connor, Bob Anderson, Teri Burkhart.

The inductees listen to Mr. Shade.

"Chow time . . ."

"I know this shoots my diet."

"ALL NIGHT LONG"

The theme, "All Night Long", was chosen for the Junior-Senior Prom which was held on April 28, 1984 at Buckeye Joint Vocational School. Music was provided by Phase II.

The following presented the program:

Invocation — Brent Ronald

Toastmaster — Scott Pretorius

Welcome — Theresa Burkhart

Senior Response — Terry Benadum

Class Will — Ken Fanti

Crowning of Royalty — Kelly O'Connor and Valotta Weaver

Crowned as king and queen were Bryan Lehigh and Terry Benadum, while Kelly Davis was chosen to serve as prince and Kacy Dyer as princess.

Post-prom activities were held at the YMCA and Kinser Lanes. Breakfast at the Ponderosa concluded the night's festivities.

Queen Terry and King Bryan

"Don't look now, Andrew, but I think we're on Candid Camera!"

SERVERS: Eric Belknap, Amy Weaver, Scott Stafford, Georgia Walker.

"The A-Team?"

Lois Rummell and Lynn Reichman

"You dance divinely."

"There's a black sheep in every flock, right Scott?"

"Could you please get me some tape, Michelle?"

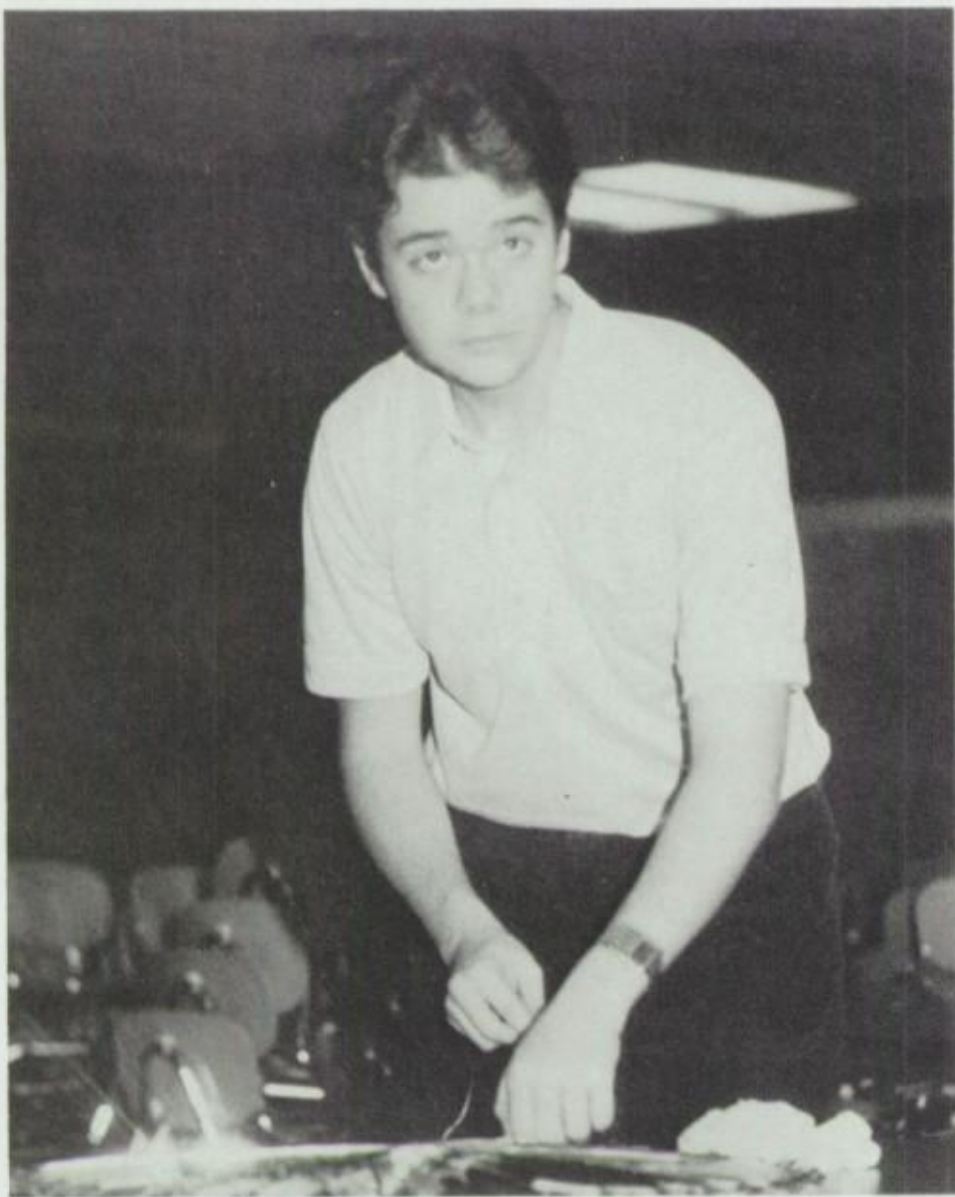

"They'll never find the tape back here."

"No George, you can't shove that tack through a brick wall."

"Now what do I do?"

"You want me to move this decoration over there?"

"This is just like wrapping presents at Christmas time."

"Why so surprised, Ben?"

"Brushing up on the hula, Mr. Metzger?"

AN EVENING AT THE THEATER

REQUIEM FOR A SMALL TOWN: ROW 1: Brent Ronald. ROW 2: Misty Whitmire, Tawny Davis, Kelly Gowins, Michele Berkshire, Carol Riddle, Christa Riddle.

WHO AM I THIS TIME?: ROW 1: Steve Sullivan, Beth Bland, Tracy Murphy, Ginger Roth. ROW 2: Ken Fanti, Wendy Berkshire, Rhonda Metzger, Roger McCoy, Amy Roth, Tina Scott.

For the first time in the history of the Indian Valley Drama Club, three one-act plays were performed. Twenty-six students from North and South joined in their efforts to present "An Evening at the Theater" this fall.

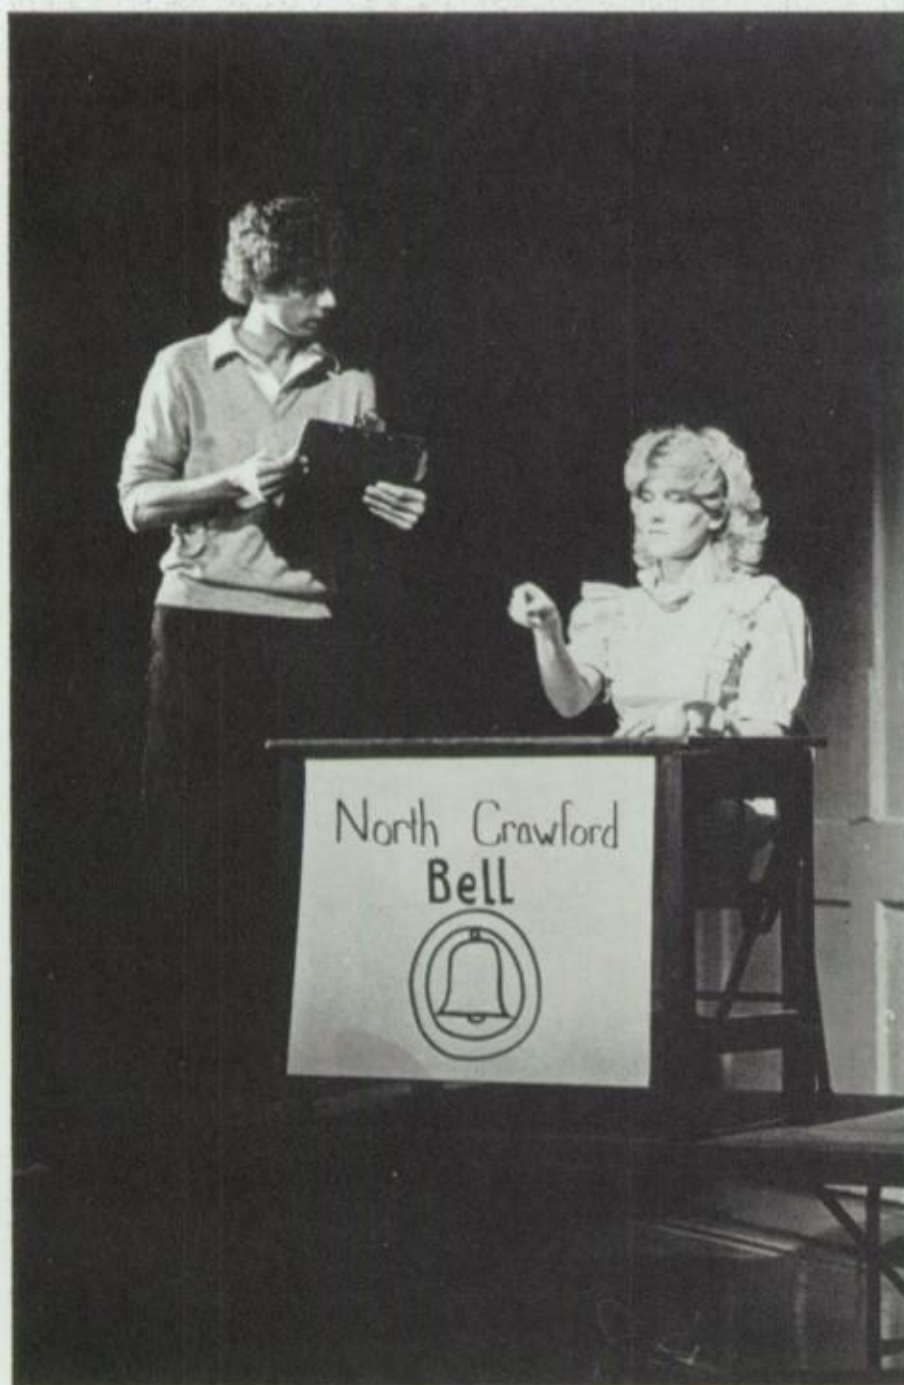

Stage Crew: ROW 1: Roy Montan. ROW 2: Todd Schwendiman, Ed Studer, Lynn Reichman, Kris Call.

SIDETRACKED: Michele Smith, Scott Ault.

SIDETRACKED: Scott Pretorius, Terry Benadum

"But Miss Shaw, no one from North Crawford has ever made a call to Honolulu!"

"Please, Margie, just listen to me."

“UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE”

“Hey, Dudes!”

“Oh, Henry!”

“I’m sorry, Miss Barrett, but my dog went on my homework.”

“They don’t need your coddling.”

“Poor nutrition is frequently the cause of poor marks.”

Mr. Michael Hamilton, Co-Director

The Indian Valley Drama Club presented their second play for the 1983-84 school year on March 30 and 31.

The play was dedicated to Mr. Hamilton in recognition of his 25th. production in the Indian Valley District. Many students have benefited from his guidance, patience, and expertise. Assisting Mr. Hamilton with both productions this year was Roger Fouts, a 1978 graduate of Indian Valley North. Roger is also involved in the Little Theater and Trumpet in the Land.

Also, this cast earned enough theatrical merits to be accepted by the International Thespian Society as charter members in Troup Number 3716.

"Left, right, left, right . . ."

Scott and Wendy led the graduates to the ceremonies.

Terry Benadum, Co-Salutatorian

Scott Ault, Co-Salutatorian

These somber faces show the seriousness of graduation.

Valedictorian Steve Sullivan and Co-salutatorians Terry Benadum and Scott Ault led the Indian Valley North Class of 1984. The themes of their addresses exhibited the closeness of the class, as all three spoke about friendship.

Seventy-four proud graduates received diplomas from Board of Education President Charles Meese. Reverend A.J. Johnson of the Roxford Methodist Church delivered a startling address, warning young people of the dangers of our complex world.

Jennifer Baker gave the Invocation, while Lois Rummell welcomed those in attendance. Following Misty Whitmire's Benediction, Juniors Wendy Berkshire and Scott Pretorius led the graduates out.

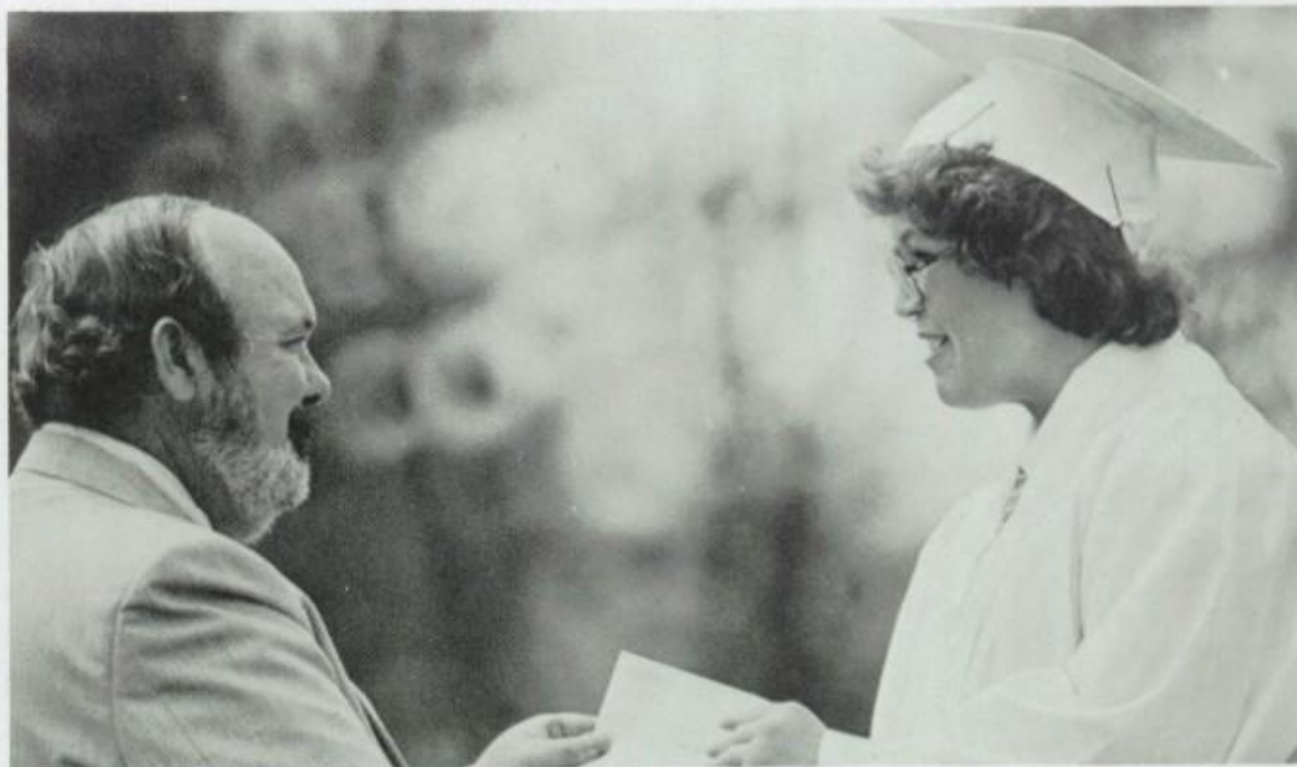

Senior Class Advisors are Mr. Keith Pretorius and Mr. John Pierson.

Lynn flashes a big smile as he leaves with his diploma.

Mr. Pretorius and Mr. Pierson, Advisors.

Stephanie White receives the IVTA scholarship.

Christa seems pleased with her silver rose.

Misty Whitmire gives the Benediction.

Lois Rummell and Roy Montan, winners of the Ninevah Grange Scholarships, pose with Mr. Campbell.

"Ha! Ha!, Dan, we got it on film."

"Smile, Robin, life goes on."

Tim Billiter poses for our photographer.

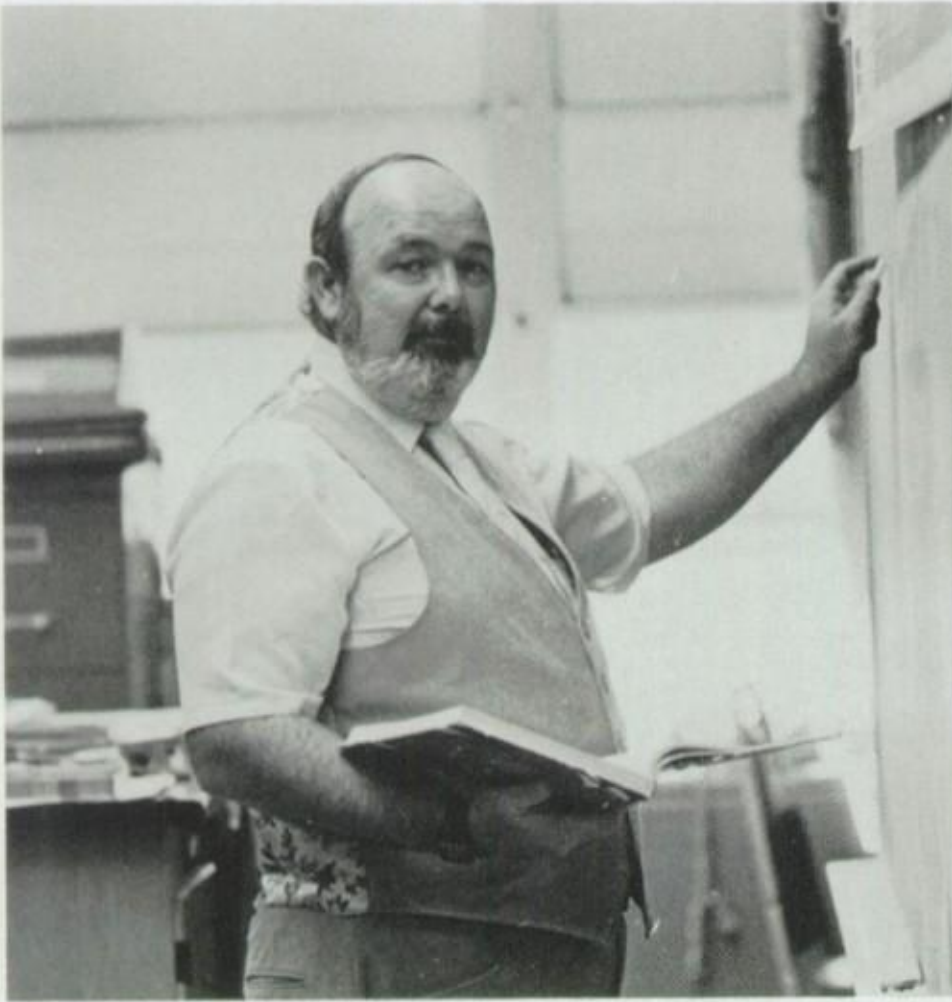

GRADUATION DAY

Today we'll start a new life
 And we'll say our last goodbyes
 To all the friends we've grown to love
 With whom we've laughed and cried.
 Remembering the fun and laughter,
 The problems and the fears,
 And watching all our memories grow
 Throughout our high school years.
 The memories of the dances
 And the new friends that we've met,
 Vacations, teachers, talking
 And exams we'd rather forget.
 Yes, high school days are precious but brief,
 Where all your dreams come true;
 It is not the end, but the beginning
 Of a life we'll start anew.

Joy Shefstad

A TEAM EFFORT

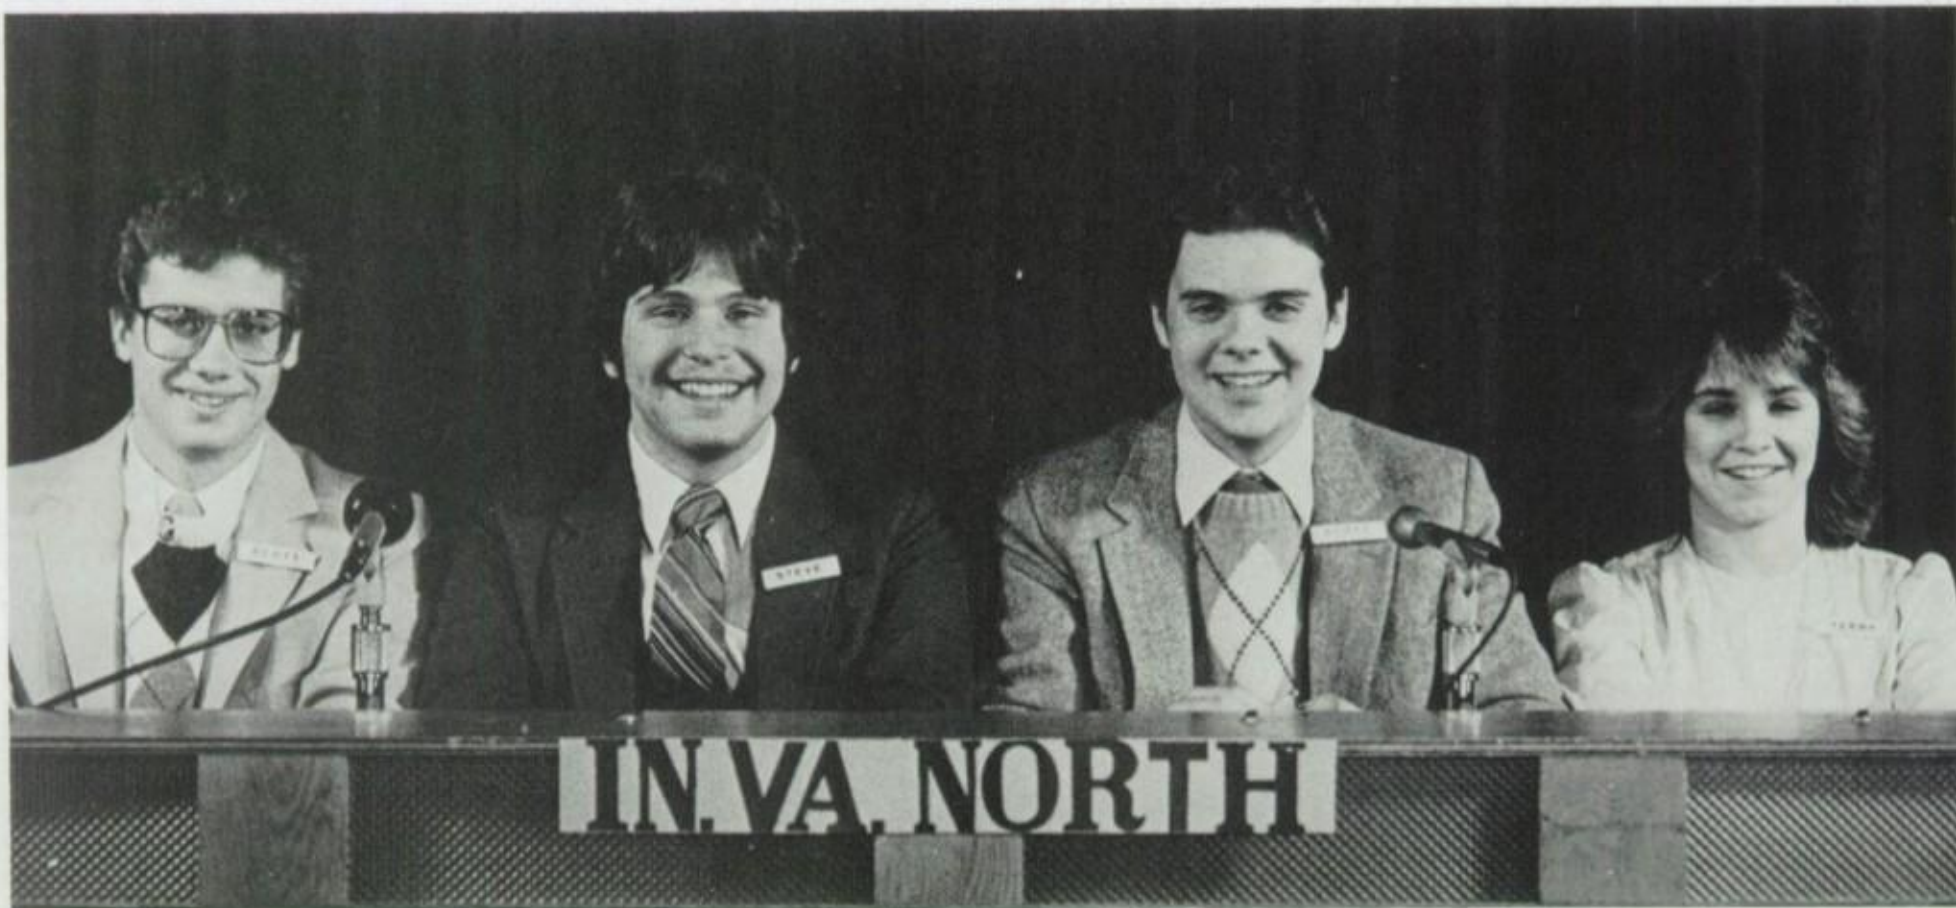

Mr. Pretorius' Scholar Challenge Team, for the second consecutive year, won the runner-up spot in the Cable TV-2 tournament. The Big Blue scholars defeated Claymont (235-170) and Garaway (320-90), but lost a narrow decision to Hiland (195-200) in the finals.

Kim flashes that Colgate smile.

"Honest. I didn't invite her here."

The absent-minded professor.

"Don't tempt me. I'm on a diet!"

"Like, let's be real!"

The whole world loves a clown. Right, Tammy?"

"I've been framed."

Fred and Ginger do their thing.

"That must be very heavy reading, Nancy."

Alice Waller gives Brent a few pointers on how to handle an interview.

"And they called it the twist!"

"What is that hanging from the ceiling?"

"Tramp on that bug, Scott!"
